■ Platform

Mayor Duterte is running on shifting the system of government to federalism to veer away from what she derides as "imperial Manila," a hark back to her father's own campaign rhetoric. Her last-minute substitution into a national race is also reminiscent of her father's own run.

The Marcos-Duterte tandem is formally backed by several other heavyweight political clans including those led by former Presidents Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo and Joseph Estrada.

- Changing system of government
- Healthcare system
- Mandatory military service
- Disaster preparedness
